Here in the heart of Silicon Valley, we want to make sure all Redwood City students get an excellent education and are prepared for 21st century careers.

Many people are following the 2016 presidential election, but do you know who makes most decisions that directly impact schools and youth in our community? Our local elected officials!

Get informed on the election this November and hear from the candidates for:

- Redwood City Council
- Redwood City School District
- Sequoia Union High School District
